Subject: City Council Study Session 24.8.2016

Please have the following read into the record for the item pertaining to funding of public information about the proposed charter on the November ballot at the Study Session on Wednesday August 24, 2016:

"Good afternoon Council Members and Mayor Henry, my name is Craig Mahaffey, and I am a resident of Cathedral City.

I am undecided about voting for the proposed city charter, and therefore I support an effort to inform the public about the pros and cons of becoming a charter city. I am optimistic that the information provided to voters will be educational; that it will answer honestly and completely the questions asked so far and yet to be raised; and that it will address the primary and secondary effects - fiscal, redevelopment, economic, administrative, city government structure and staffing, and social - of each provision in the proposed charter. Hopefully the information will convey the full purpose and intent of the council behind each of the provisions.

Thank you."
